

Paul Marshall

Tuesday, May 9, 2017 at Tomball Christian Business Luncheon

Paul was born in Hawaii in 1942 where his parents were Salvation Army missionaries. He attended 10 different schools in six different cities from pre-school to high school.

He attended the U.S. Naval Academy and graduated in 1965. He completed flight training in 1967 and flew carrier combat support missions in SE Asia until leaving the active duty Navy in 1975, then joining the Navy Reserves. He retired as a CAPT. in 1992.

Upon leaving the Navy, Paul became a Government Marketing Officer for major engineering & construction firms such as CRSS, Kaiser, Stone & Webster, and Brown & Root. He started his own firm in 1998 until retiring in 2013. He now volunteers in helping Military Veterans.

He has been an Elder and Deacon at Windwood Presbyterian Church, where he and his wife GG have been members for many years.

Join like-minded men and women for a meal and fellowship while listening to this informative talk to be held at the Beckendorf Conference Center on the campus of Lone Star College-Tomball, 30555 Tomball Parkway, Tomball, Texas 77375.

Doors open at 11:30 a.m. for the noon to 1 p.m. luncheon. RSVPs are not necessary but available online at ChristianBusinessLuncheon.org. Freewill donations for lunch are appreciated, but not required. Look for the Christian Business Luncheon-Tomball on Facebook as well.